Fulbright Program & NYFA

New York Film Academy (NYFA) is proud to have welcomed over 60 Fulbright students from more than 35 nations, representing countries as diverse as Angola, Argentina, Bahrain, Bulgaria, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Egypt, Finland, France, Indonesia, Lithuania, Paraguay, Russia, Spain, Sri Lanka, Ukraine, Uruguay, Vietnam, and Zambia. Most grantees of the Fulbright Foreign Student Program enroll in one of NYFA’s MFA programs to achieve their artistic and educational goals.

NYFA has proudly partnered with the Fulbright Commission in Spain to establish a “Fulbright Graduate Student Award” — a unique, fully-funded MFA grant award in Filmmaking for the most talented young Spanish filmmakers. NYFA, together with the Fulbright Commission in Argentina and the Argentine National Foundation for the Arts, has entered an agreement to host Argentine creators at NYFA’s New York City and Los Angeles campuses. The selected recipients will receive funding to develop their artistic projects.

NYFA is privileged to have numerous Fulbright Program alumni as part of its faculty, including NYFA Director of Fulbright Initiatives Miguel Cruz, an award-winning filmmaker from Spain.

NYFA delivers many opportunities for Fulbright students to develop collaborative projects and to engage with the broader Fulbright community.
