An Agreement between
New York Film Academy and Fundação Armando Alvares Penteado

Agreement made as of June 23rd, 2010 between Fundação Armando Alvares Penteado (hereinafter FAAP) located at Rua Ceará 02, São Paulo, Brazil and New York Film Academy (hereinafter The Academy) located at 100 East 17th Street, New York New York.

WHEREAS, FAAP is a non-profit institution of higher education accredited by the Ministry of Education of Brazil, and,

WHEREAS, The Academy is a proprietary institution accredited by the National Association of Schools of Art and Design and engaged in the business of education and authorized to enter into this contract,

THEREFORE, FAAP and The Academy wish to enter into a mutually beneficial agreement to facilitate the transfer of credits to FAAP by students who complete courses at the Academy with the express aim of degree completion, and for FAAP students who complete study abroad programs or workshops through the Academy’s locations worldwide to receive said credit at FAAP toward degree completion.

This agreement shall commence on the date of the signature and continue until terminated by either party upon 60 days written notice.

Students who complete courses at The Academy and are admitted to FAAP shall receive credit for The Academy courses equivalent to FAAP disciplines.

This agreement only grants transfer of credits to those students who are admitted to FAAP and does not guarantee acceptance to FAAP for any student. All students must apply to FAAP through the traditional admission process.

FAAP students applying to study abroad at The Academy are required to follow all FAAP policies and procedures for obtaining the necessary approvals.

FAAP shall make available to students of The Academy academic advisement and consultation regarding the admission process.

The courses taken under this agreement does not guarantee titles from both institutions.
FAAP and the Academy shall engage in such actions necessary to ensure student awareness of the opportunities available, including but not limited to, placement of web links and/or a presence on the respective websites of FAAP and The Academy.

By mutual agreement, the parties shall meet periodically to make proposals concerning specific collaboration activities. To this end, a Follow-up Committee shall be set up which shall be composed, at the very least, of two representatives of each of the signatory parties. The Committee shall resolve by mutual agreement any discrepancies that may arise in the application and execution of this Agreement.

Having read this specific agreement and being aware of its contents and scope, and being in agreement to establish articulation between FAAP and the Academy, the undersigned look forward to a period of cooperation in an endeavor that will serve our students and our institutions.
