An Agreement between New York Film Academy And Regent's College London

Agreement made as of the 23 June 2010 between Regent's College London (hereinafter RCL) located at Inner Circle, Regent's Park, London and New York Film Academy (hereinafter The Academy) located at 100 East 17th Street, New York New York.

WHEREAS, RCL is a not-for-profit institution of higher education certified by the British Accreditation Council and accredited by the Open University to offer undergraduate and postgraduate courses, and,

WHEREAS, The Academy is a proprietary institution accredited by the National Association of Schools of Art and Design and engaged in the business of education and authorized to enter into this contract,

THEREFORE, RCL and The Academy wish to enter into a mutually beneficial agreement to facilitate the transfer of credits to RCL by students who complete courses at the Academy with the express aim of degree completion, and for RCL students who complete study abroad programs or workshops through the Academy's locations worldwide to receive said credit back at RCL toward degree completion.

This agreement shall commence on July 2010 and continue until terminated by either party upon 60 days written notice.

Students who complete courses at The Academy and are admitted to Regent's College shall receive credit for The Academy courses pursuant to RCL approved offerings from The Academy catalog and may enter RCL with advanced standing. This agreement only grants advanced standing to those students who are admitted to RCL and does not guarantee acceptance to RCL for any student. All students must apply to RCL through the traditional admission process.

RCL students applying to study abroad at the Academy are required to follow all RCL policies and procedures for obtaining the necessary approvals.

Academy students applying to study abroad at RCL are required to follow all RCL policies and procedures for obtaining the necessary approvals.

In the event of termination, students then currently enrolled in RCL shall receive course credit pursuant to the NYFA catalog.

RCL shall make available to students of The Academy academic advisement and consultation regarding the admission process.

RCL and the Academy shall engage in such actions necessary to ensure student awareness of the opportunities available, including but not limited to, placement of web links and/or a presence on the respective websites of RCL and the Academy.
NEW YORK FILM ACADEMY

By mutual agreement, the parties shall meet periodically to make proposals concerning specific collaboration activities. To this end, a Follow-up Committee shall be set up which shall be composed, at the very least, of two representatives of each of the signatory parties. The Committee shall resolve by mutual agreement any discrepancies that may arise in the application and execution of this Agreement.

Having read this specific agreement and being aware of its contents and scope, and being in agreement to establish articulation between RCL and the Academy, the undersigned look forward to a period of cooperation in an endeavor that will serve our students and our institutions.

Regent’s College London

Prof. Adwyn R. Cooper
CEO and Principal

New York Film Academy

Jerry Sherlock
President

Spencer Coles
Director of Marketing and Student Recruitment

Michael Young
Provost